GoGreen Conference Postponed to September 8, 2020
Due to COVID-19 Public Health Concerns

Current registrants and partners to be transferred automatically to new event date

March 16, 2020 – Seattle, WA. The organizers of the 2020 GoGreen Conference have been closely monitoring the escalation of COVID-19 (Coronavirus) in Washington state and the world at large. As always, the health and safety of our stakeholders, employees, attendees, partners, speakers and communities is our top priority. After careful consideration, we have made the decision to postpone the GoGreen Conference to September 8, 2020. The conference will still take place at the Hyatt Regency Seattle.

“As the world is grappling the coronavirus (COVID-19), it is important for all of us in the community to limit our collective exposure and ultimately reduce spread of the virus,” said GoGreen Founder and President Ericka Nelson. “We look forward to seeing you on September 8th and bringing you the highest quality sustainability event in the region once it has been deemed safe to do so.”

For ten years, the GoGreen Conference has been the ultimate sustainability learning experience for business and public sector decision-makers in the Pacific Northwest. The 2020 conference program is set and will remain the same, featuring cutting edge content and recognized leaders from the community. Our conference will empower attendees with the strategies, tools and connections to green their organizations with profitability in mind.

For those already confirmed to attend, all tickets and partnership will automatically be transferred to our new event date of September 8, 2020. For additional information on the program and speakers visit <http://seattle.gogreenconference.net/program/>.
